ANNOUNCEMENT OF INCREASED MUNICIPAL GRANTS FOLLOWS REEVE ALOISIO'S PROTESTS TO PREMIER

MEANOOK — Last year the provincial government announced a system of paying financial grants to municipal districts who do not increase their mill rate. Keeping the mill rate down has been easy in districts favored by hundreds of oil wells and big industrial development, and the results is that these well developed, wealthy districts have received the municipal grant, whereas districts such as Athabasca which are not so far advanced and have had to maintain their mill rate just to keep up bare, essential services, have not received the grant.

As Reeve Aloisio pointed out to Premier Manning, it's a case of "The Rich get Richer and the Poor get Poorer." Mr. Manning, in his reply, stated the matter would be given attention. Now in the Premier's new budget a paragraph indicates 1c per gallon of the gasoline tax will be specially earmarked for M.D.'s requiring assistance.

Mr. Aloisio stated last week that if new areas, such as Athabasca, are to be developed in the Province, such assistance will be needed.

Following are minutes of the regular meeting of the Municipal District of Athabasca Council held on Thursday, February 14. Present were: Reeve Aloisio, Councillors Parson, Breckenridge, Lynk, Rosyckuk, Derko and La-Porte.

The meeting was called to order by the Reeve at 11:00 a.m.

The minutes of the previous regular meeting of January 10, 1952, were read to the council by the Secretary-Treasurer.

Moved by Ctr. Parson that the minutes of the previous regular meeting of January 10, 1952, be adopted as read. Carried.

Financial Statement

The financial statement for the month of January, 1952, was read to the council by the Secretary-Treasurer, and ordered filed.

M.D. Convention

The Reeve reported re the municipal district subconvention held in Edmonton, stating the municipal assistance act was discussed, and for a motion to go in to the July meeting re discrimination.

Old People's Home

The Secretary reported re interviewing Mr. Miller and Dr. McCallum in Edmonton, re taking over the old Athabasca municipal hospital, as a home for old people, stating the only allowance given by the government was 75 cents per day for each patient. The matter was discussed by the council and it was decided that the home could not be operated by the M.D. and the Town, on these terms.

Plowing Out Roads

The matter of plowing out personal roads for farmers was brought up and discussed by the council, and it was decided that private roads could be plowed out, but the snowplow operator must issue a receipt to the farmer for payment for the work done, or the money must be paid direct to the municipal office.

S. Bereziuk Hospital

Moved by Reeve Aloisio we send the letter received from S. Bereziuk re payment for the difference between the Athabasca and Edmonton hospital rates, to the Athabasca Municipal Hospital, for their attention. Carried.

By-Law No. 229

Moved by Reeve Aloisio that Council accept the offer of Charles Harband of Meanook, Alberta, to purchase the S.W. 25-64-24-4, for the sum of $500, on terms of $200 cash, and the balance in two equal annual payments commencing on February 14, 1953, with interest at 5 per cent per annum, subject to the approval of the Minister of Municipal Affairs, and that a by-law be passed. Carried.

By-law No. 229 of The Municipal District of Athabasca No. 103

A by-law concerning the sale of the S.W. 25-64-24-4, pursuant to the provisions of The Tax Recovery Act, 1942, and amendments thereto:

Whereas an offer has been received from Charles Harband, of Meanook, Alberta, to purchase the S.W. 25-64-24-4, for the sum of $500, on terms of $200 cash and the balance in two equal annual payments commencing on February 14, 1953, with interest at 5 per cent per annum;

You say it was not your intention To criticize our town
Then explain yourself fully
And let the truth be known.

I don't think it's a good idea, I'm sure others will agree,
To change the name of our town,
That's not improvement as you can surely see.

Let's improve the town, if it needs improving.
Let's build it up to suit its name,
Just because it needs improvement
Do you have to put our town to shame?

In your poem "Streets of Lorado", I must have misunderstood 'cause I've read till I'm disgusted,
Though I've searched from beginning right down to the end,
I can't find improvements you say you suggested.

If it was the dogs, sure they are a nuisance
But you never mentioned improvements about them.
Aren't you exaggerating just a little,

There certainly aren't that many of them.
I agree something be done regarding our dogs.
Let's all get together 'cause we're surely to blame,

Sure, let's do something about it, You won't solve a thing by changing the town's name.

THE TRAVELLER.

Semi-Finals Played In Bowling League

LAC LA BICHE — Last Thursday night, four teams battled it out for semi-finalist standing in the Men's Bowling League. Mr. Selinger's team, which consisted of himself and Bill Yakimee, since the other two players were absent fought a losing battle against Wally Gordichuk's team of Paul Bouvier, Gus Byrkelo and John Zaluzny. Three out of five games had to be won in order to enter the finals.

Lou Badry's team, of Al Weeres and George Hewko, was handicapped by the absence of one player as they lost to Vincent Varze's team, of Mickey Hamar, Lionel Vincent and Floyd McMillan.

The finals will be played next Thursday night, when Varze's team plays against Gordichuk's team for the trophy. To win the trophy, four games out of seven must be won.

Northern Salt Plant Closed At McMurray

The Canadian Salt Company has closed their plant at McMurray, northern-most railway plant in Alberta.

Officials stated that the plant has been closed "permanently" as far as can be seen, and that the machinery has been removed. Sale of some equipment at the plant currently is being advertised.

The officials said the costs of hauling coal or fuel oil north to McMurray had made the operation of the salt plant unprofitable, in view of better sources of supply, at Lindbergh, near Vermilion, and at Unity, Sask.

'Flying Priest' Gets License Suspension

EDMONTON, (UPI)—The Federal Department of Transport Wednesday slapped on a 30-day suspension of the pilot's license held by Father William Leising, the colorful "Flying Priest" of the western Arctic.

The suspension followed rescue by the R.C.A.F. of Father Leising and three fellow-missionaries of the Roman Catholic Church from the snow-covered wilderness of Northern Alberta, where they made a forced landing a week ago.

K. F. Saunders, district superintendent of air regulations, announced the suspension was ordered because Father Leising had overloaded his single-engine Norseman aircraft and failed to file a flight plan before leaving Edmonton on a 500-mile flight to Fort Smith, N.W.T.

The bright red church plane had recently been purchased in the United States to haul supplies to remote missions in the Arctic. The missionary was making his first flight into the north aboard the plane when he was forced down.

The other three priests, Brothers Michael Dabrowsky, George Dougherty and Anthony Petran, remained at Fort McMurray while Father Leising reported to the transport department at Edmonton.

His next scheduled assignment with the plane was to fly 40 tons of processed buffalo meat to church missions scattered throughout the north.

Saunders reported that while Father Leising had been grounded his plane was not grounded and another pilot could carry out the assignment if the church so desired.

The aircraft is owned by the Apostolic Vicariate of the Mackenzie and has been used to supply missionary outposts from Fort McMurray north to the Arctic coast. Father Leising, a veteran of 10 years missionary work in the north, learned to fly in St. Louis three years ago.

HISTORY OF C.C.I.L. REVIEWED AT REGULAR F.U.A. MEETING

WASKATENA — The regular meeting of Clodford F.U.A. was held in the Co-op Hall on March 4 at 8 p.m. Speakers were Mr. Harper, vice-president of Canadian Co-operative Implements, Ltd. and Mr. Strashok, District Agriculturist for Smoky Lake Municipal District.

UNITED CHURCH NEWS

WASKATENA — Special Easter Services in all congregations will be held. The Waskatenau Choir has been preparing for the Rally on Easter Sunday.

The Communion of the Lord's Supper will be observed at Waskatenau on Good Friday at 11 a.m.

On Sunday last the sermon was based on the experience of Abraham upon Mount Moriah. The attendance both at Smoky Lake and Waskatenau was very good. The choir sang a very lovely Lenten selection.

A special welcome was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Gorley, who recently moved into town. The pastor stated that Mr. and Mrs. Gorley had stood by the work of the church throughout the many years of their residence in Alberta.

This week the pastor, Rev. G.A. Sauder, will attend the Hospital Board Meeting and also the meeting of the Alberta Home Mission Board.

WASKATENA — The regular meeting of Clodford F.U.A. was held in the Co-Op Hall on March 4, at 8 p.m. Speakers were Mr. Harper, vice-president of Canadian Co-operative Implements, Ltd., and Mr. Strashok, District Agriculturist for Smoky Lake Municipal District.

Mr. Harper gave a very interesting talk on the history of the C.C.I.L. In 1938, through the findings of a Royal Commission, an organization known as the Canadian Co-operative Implements, Ltd., came into being, its purpose being to find how much could be saved through distribution of farm machinery. A short time later a contract was made between the organization and Cockshutt Plow Co. whereby the C.C.I.L. agreed to distribute the Cockshutt line of machinery among its members and ascertain what saving could be made through distribution alone. After a few years of operation, it was found that results were: a cash saving of between 16 and 25 percent to the members; about 60 distributing and service centres throughout Alberta; a qualified staff of field and shop personnel being maintained.

In 1951 CCIL paid back 17.2% in the form of dividends. At the present time the organization has its own factory, in which are manufactured the most popular machines on the market today, namely the disk, the harrow and an implement soon to come out, the plow.

In closing Mr. Harper pointed out that in 1951 the CCIL distributed only 3% of Cockshutt Plow Co.'s output at a saving of 17.2%. A much greater saving could be accomplished if distribution could be increased to about 25%. Mr. Strachuk spoke briefly on the importance of good, clean seed possessing a high germination quality. He warned farmers of the danger in seeding damp grain as the varying temperature of spring weather sometimes cause such grain to lose its vitality and delayed germination for weeks. Mr. Strachuk also spoke briefly on dreaded foot and mouth disease which is causing Saskatchewan farmers to lose entire herds.

FARMERS UNION DISTRICT, NO. 4, HOLD BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

SMOKY LAKE — A meeting of the Board of Directors of District 4 (Beaver Crossing) was held at Smoky Lake on February 28 and 29, 1952, with most of the directors present. The reports showed an encouraging increase in membership for the present year but a vigorous campaign by all members was still considered the best way to show all farmers in the district the necessity of joining the FUA and have the opportunity to have a voice in the farm affairs in this province.

Mr. George Dwernychuck, director District 4, Smoky Lake, gave a report of the last central board meeting, while Mrs. Steinhauer, FWUA director, Brousseau, did so on the achievements and future plans of the Women's Section.

The transfer of the district books which was made necessary through the change in the person of district secretary was approved. The new secretary, Mr. F. Wuth, Rat Lake, in the financial statement showed the district finances on a sound basis with all old debts cleared up. Considerable time was required to make the arrangements for the summer rallies and the district convention. The rallies will be held in the third week in June in the sub-districts with the convention at St. Paul on July 3. Special notices will be sent to all locals.

The accusations raised by certain individuals against the board for not pushing a more aggressive policy in the district were repudiated in a motion which pointed out that the Board is working at all times to promote the demands of the members and locals but flatly refuses to dictate to the membership.

The meeting was under the very able chairmanship of Mr. R. Steinhauer.

IMPLEMENT PRICES ARE LOW in comparison with prices of other supplies the farmer buys

- The outstanding achievement by Massey-Harris in keeping the prices of its Canadian-made products at a low level of increase over 1941, is clearly shown by the above chart of price indexes.
- All commodities are shown as 97.7% higher than 1941; raw materials are 98.2% higher; average hourly rates of pay Massey-Harris Canadian plants are 158.0% higher; yet Massey-Harris Canadian-made farm implements have increased only 66.2%.
- The continued great world demand for labour-saving farm equipment has given a volume permitting high operating efficiency in relation to production and selling costs, making possible the partial absorption of the increased costs of materials and labour.
- With the scarcity and high cost of experienced help, farmers find in modern machinery the means to maintain high volume production at low operating cost.

Don't Burn Stubble

Regardless of plowing difficulties, which can be overcome, A. M. Wilson warned farmers at the Legal Barley Improvement Day that under no circumstances should field stubble be burned off.

Farmers who burn their stubble waste nitrogen to the value of $283 for 100 acres. The practice also leaves the land susceptible to erosion.

G. R. Sterling, of the Alberta department of agriculture, says that an average crop produces 1,500 pounds of straw to the acre, and this straw contains 9.15 pounds of nitrogen. Another 15 pounds of nitrogen can be produced if the straw is left on the field for bacteria to work on. At 11¾ cents a pound, 24.15 pounds of nitrogen is worth $2.83 — $283 for 100 acres.

Straw also provides a trash cover which prevents soil drifting and water erosion. It shelters the soil from the pounding effect of rain, and prevents puddling and sealing of the soil's surface.

Crisis Averted

When the outbreak of foot and mouth disease among cattle in Saskatchewan first became known, chaotic conditions in livestock marketing appeared imminent. The United States closed its borders to imports of all livestock from Canada. The provinces of British Columbia and Quebec imposed similar restrictions. Deliveries to stockyards in the west threatened to reach substantial proportions.

Timely advice broadcast to producers by livestock associations, farmers' organizations, and governmental leaders, resulted in a reduced flow of stock to market. Over the week-end the federal cabinet decided on a policy which was announced by Rt. Hon. J. G. Gardiner, minister of agriculture. The main points in the policy:

Rigid controls will be imposed on meat imports into Canada.

Floor prices on hogs will be maintained.

Persuasion will be brought to bear on provinces banning imports of prairie livestock, with the objective of removing such restrictions.

The minister said that an area of 50 miles square, including municipalities, is quarantined in Saskatchewan. Some 23 cattle were found to be infected with the disease and such, together with cattle which had contact therewith, have been destroyed. No cases have been found anywhere in Canada outside the infected area.

Mr. Gardiner said that with the resumption of normal domestic trade, the demand should be sufficient to take care of ordinary deliveries of cattle. Producers should not rush their animals to market.

With regard to hogs, the minister said the premium on A grades would be paid on animals weighing between 200 and 240 pounds, and the premium on B grades would be paid on animals weighing from 241 pounds up. This is a change in policy, as the previous limit for the A and B1 grades was around 220 pounds. Mr. Gardiner said that the floor price would be kept at $26 per cwt., basis A grade Toronto, which means $23.75 in Calgary.

Note and Comment

The Canadian dollar reached parity with the United States dollar on January 22, and in some cases was even commanding a small premium. Outside of a period from mid-1946 to September, 1949, when it was at a controlled par, this is the first time since 1939 that the Canadian dollar has been equal in value to the U.S. dollar.

Livestock prices tumbled at cattle marketing centres in the U.S.A. February because of large meat surpluses. There is over a billion pounds of meat in cold storage in that country. Hogs went down to $17.50 per cwt. liveweight at St. Paul.

This Crowded World

Thornton Wilder once wrote a play dedicated to the proposition that the human race has survived up to now by the skin of its teeth—that it has always been nip and tuck whether mankind would keep or lose control of the earth.

We are reminded of the Wilder theme by a gruesome little booklet just received from the Population Reference Bureau in Washington, called "Europe's Overpopulation, Can It Be Solved by Emigration?"

The author, Robert C. Cook, says it can't; that overpopulation in Europe is now perilous and is worsening so fast that you could not move enough Europeans to less crowded areas to counteract current increases.

Since 1925, Europe has been a main battleground of World War II. Yet Europe's population since 1925 has increased by almost 90,000,000—from 307,700,000 to about 396,000,000. (We are speaking of Europe this side of the Curtain).

For all that, European birth rates are not unusually high. Europe's overpopulation thus highlights the fact that the world's population as a whole is increasing faster than the world's ability to produce food. That is a situation which Mr. Cook believes cannot fail to bring on more and more wars as long as it exists.

Any remedies? Mr. Cook hopes vaguely for what he calls "a Schuman plan for balanced reproduction" of the human species in Europe. As far as we can hope that one out, it means birth control as a national policy enforced somehow by politicians—a proposition which doesn't seem likely to appeal to many people any time soon.

At risk of sounding unscientific and over-optimistic, we will say it looks to us as if the human race has merely reached another of those emergencies which are forever menacing it, and as if, on past performance, it will haul out of this one somehow.

How, we wouldn't know; and neither, we think, would any of the experts pondering the problem. But the best guess would seem to be that science, which is steadily increasing the average life expectancy, will also find ways, before it is too late, to make world food production keep up with human production.

Way To A Happy Marriage

"Marriages usually go on the rocks because of nagging, bickering and petty misunderstanding," according to Judge Joseph Sabbath, who has heard more than 75,000 divorce cases in his forty-eight years on the bench.

Here's Judge Sabbath's advice to the wives:

"Even though you have been slaving all day, don't look like nightmare Nancy when your man comes home.

"Don't be afraid to be romantic. Wave to the guy when he leaves home in the morning and jump into his arms when he comes home at night. Just because you have him signed, sealed and delivered is no reason to regard his coming and going as you would the garbage man's.

"Let him think he is the boss. You probably are but don't let him find it out if you can help it."

Here's Judge Sabbath's advice to the husbands:

"You may be choking on the biscuits your wife baked but you should clear your throat to praise her cooking.

"Tell her she is beautiful even if she isn't. A little flattery never hurt anybody.

"Call her occasionally from the office to remind her that you are thinking about her. She will love you for it. Take home a box of candy occasionally—or a bag of peanuts, if you can't afford candy. Don't forget she likes to be remembered."

Although the advice of Judge Sabbath may seem simple, it is worth considering in view of the fact that this down-to-earth jurist has talked more than eight thousand couples out of divorce and into reconciliation.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. John 15, 13.

Voice of the People

PLEA FOR SANITY

The article about the Glastonbury Thorn is a notorious example of Harold Weir's well-known facility for distorting even religion to further his unofficial position as Royalty's Alberta foot-kisser. If he thought he could get away with it, Weir would have haloes appear above the Royal couple each time they entered a Canadian church. This attitude borders the blasphemous. The Glastonbury Thorn is a beautiful legend (i.e., an untrue fairy tale), but why should an object reputed to have direct connection with the Crucifixion, be forced to pander to Mr. Weir's quaint notions about the sanctity of the British Royal House, who, with exception of Victoria, the last two Georges and the present Queen, were a sorry crew of profligates?

If Weir's painful public grovelings are sincere, they are pathetic and laughable; if, as I have long suspected, they are dictated by a poseur's desire to hog the limelight, they are contemptible. The Thorn may have blossomed as Princess Elizabeth approached it (I am nasty enough to doubt it). But I don't suppose it occurred to wide-eyed little-boy Harry to pop around to the gardeners' quarters and find out if they dumped an extra bushel of fertilizer on the plant. This would be quite in keeping with the American passion for making magic. (They call it good public relations stunts, I believe.)

The present Queen does not need Mr. Weir's vulgar "legends" to enhance her status. She is in a job she didn't ask for, and probably doesn't want, and which, when one comes right down to cases, requires her to be nothing more than a charming dummy. If she makes it her business, as her good father did before her, to "make work", that is perform useful and productive acts when she's neither required nor expected to do so, then she will be highly commended. But for sanity's sweet sake, let us have no more murky, medieval tripe about a Holy Thorn bursting in bloom merely because a very modern, quite ordinary young woman chanced to stroll in its vicinity. If you decide to publish this letter, I shall be fondly and eagerly awaiting to join battle with all the Empiah-worshippers, and tea-cup readers, who will undoubtedly take exception to my plea for simple sanity in an hysterical world.

ALBERTA OLD AGE PENSION (O.A.P.)

Native Albertans, in time of national peril, put on the King's (Queen's) uniform and uphold Canada's honor, and also protect its vast wealth. In doing so, they suffer many grievous war disabilities, for which the Dominion Government pays them a pension "as part compensation. Our Alberta Provincial Government, headed by Premier Ernest Manning, classes this compensation as "inconic," and uses it, under the Provincial means test to 70 years and over disabled war veterans, to evade paying the extra ten dollars ($10.00) old age pension bonus.

So, Readers, I ask, is this a fair deal to World War One veterans, nurses and doctors?

God Bless our New Queen!

M.D. HOSPITAL LEGISLATION

Municipal Hospital schemes have developed into a fiasco, farce, and taxation tragedy—to wit, on a forty dollar valuation of four acres of rough agricultural land, no improvements, I am taxed $21.50—$15.00 of this is for hospital tax. So in less than two years, the full equity of this land is wiped out.

Even our outside farm toilets have been taxed, and I challenge any official, or MLA, to refute the above—documents provided if necessary.

PROVINCE CHANGES GRANTS FOR HORSE-RACING REVENUE

The Alberta government has issued an order-in-council making drastic changes in the method of handling grants and commissions for horse racing, it was learned Saturday.

The new order-in-council rescinds a former order of 1940, granting the R. J. Speers Corporation, Ltd., of Winnipeg, a 50 per cent commission on the pari-mutuel or betting tax collected for the province on the spring and fall racing meets in Calgary and Edmonton.

It cuts the agricultural grants for the Edmonton and Calgary Exhibition Associations from $10,000 to $5,000 a year, but allows them also to receive grants equivalent to 50 per cent of the province's betting tax on the spring and fall meets, to a maximum of $50,000 each.

Eliminated from the government's new policy on "subsidies or grants" for the horse racing is the Speers Corporation, the most influential body in prairie racing.

The changes in the order-in-council followed closely charges made Monday in the legislature, when J. Harper Prowse, Liberal leader, claimed the provincial government had made a "hidden subsidy" of $538,000 to racing, through the Speers Corporation, since 1937. The charges were answered Tuesday by Premier Manning, who said the principle had been established 25 years without objection, for many years earlier and had been accepted. He said Mr. Prowse's figures were in error, were too high by some $70,000, the commission on the tax being $456,653 since 1943.

There was an echo of the charges and the answers regarding horse-racing in the house Friday, when Pete Chaba, S.C. Redwater, said that Mr. Prowse "had insinuated, even if he didn't state it, that we are subsidizing gamblers, that's dirt," he said.

FUA Mass Meeting At Stony Plain

A UFA mass meeting was held in Stony Plain hall on February 27.

Subjects of current interest to farmers were brought before the meeting by sub-director Lyle McMillan and a lively discussion followed. Mr. C. D. Fuhr was chairman.

A resolution was passed opposing the export of natural gas from the province as many new industries which might be established in Alberta such as the ore refining plant soon to be set up near Ft. Saskatchewan need gas for fuel purposes only and it was also felt that known gas reserves should be available for a period exceeding 30 years before any natural gas is exported.

The meeting urged that the dominion government pay farmers at least the prevailing world price for wheat sold on the domestic market, as Canadians in general not farmers alone should pay for any domestic wheat subsidy.

As Canada no longer sells Wiltshire sides to Britain the farmers assembled felt it was unfair to western farmers that the basic price of hogs should vary so much throughout Canada and a resolution urged the dominion government to establish a floor price of $26 per cwt. on hogs as this is the floor price now paid in eastern Canada.

Another resolution asked that a plebiscite on rural electrification be held prior to the next provincial election as a political issue should not be made of his question.

tion as it was when the first plebiscite was taken.

During a discussion of the auction marketing of cattle the conclusion was that this was a satisfactory method of selling.

There was some discussion on the contracts offered by various oil and gas line companies and the consensus of opinion was that farmers would be well advised to consult the union lawyer or other legal council before signing any contracts for right of entry, damages or oil rights.

Mr. Mark Hettinger a delegate to the recent CCIL convention in Saskatchewan pointed out that this cooperative has paid dividends of at least 16 per cent to its patrons each year since its establishment.

Malcolm McMillan, provisional junior director and Mrs. J. G. Harold, women's director, spoke briefly of the Montana State MFU School which they had recently attended.

LETTERS TO LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

My husband and I have recently moved to this place and his business acquaintances have been very nice to us.

My problem is that they all serve cocktails before dinner and I do not drink. Do I embarrass my hostess by refusing or what should I do?

A. G.

He Has Only One Question

INDIANAPOLIS — Federal Court Judge William E. Steckler found himself up against a stickler here. The question was posed by an aged confidence man, who asked:

"What I'd like to know, your honor, is why people are so stupid?"

The judge had asked Fred H. Griffith, 71: "How does a man your age feel about such a record? Why do you do all these things to innocent people?"

Griffith had pleaded guilty to bilking a Terre Haute cab driver of $286 by posing as a postal inspector on a secret assignment which would not allow him to stay in a hotel. He asked to stay in the cab driver's home. After a two-week sojourn, he asked his host to endorse a check. The check "bounced" after Griffith disappeared.

Griffith's long record of arrests, the first in 1913, was offered in evidence. He has served seven prison sentences.

Judge Steckler's answer to Griffith's question was another prison sentence — one year.

Many people are allergic to alcohol even when they do not disapprove of it and a hostess should always have some non-alcoholic drink for those of her guests who prefer it. If there is no fruit or tomato juice offered, simply ask for plain ginger ale and your hostess certainly should not be embarrassed.

$1 for EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Editor will pay $1.00 for every item published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life". Address "Embarrassing Moments", P.O. Box 4368, South Edmonton.

Here is the most embarrassing moment of my life. I hope it is published.

One evening I was waiting for my boy friend to come and get me for the dance we had made a date for. I was almost ready and was sitting by my dresser in my bedroom. The door was open into my room, and I had my back to it. All of a sudden I happened to look around and there was my boy friend watching me as I put my make up on. Was I ever embarrassed, as I didn't know he was there.

Haren, Alta. C. C.

One day my sister and I were shopping in Edmonton. I wanted to buy some candies, so I went up to what I thought was my sister and said, "Give me a dollar."

I sure felt embarrassed when I found it was a stranger.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

A Difference
The liner was encountering bad weather in mid-ocean and some of the passengers were very uncomfortable. Watching a miserable-looking man who was bending over the side of the ship, a fair young thing turned to the woman at her side.

"Your husband is a poor sailor, is he not?" she said.
"Certainly not," said the woman, "he's a rich stockbroker."

"Intoxicating" Milk
An old man's cow got loose, visited a neighbor's still, and ate so much sour mash that she died. The old man put in a claim against the neighbor for the cost of the cow.

"I'll never pay it," said the neighbor. "My whiskey mash didn't kill your cow. She gave eggnog, and you milked her to death."

Higher-Ups
Tenant—"Why raise my rent when my room is in the attic?"
Landlord—"You use more stairs than any one else."

High Finance
Ezra went to the bank and asked for the loan of one dollar. He paid the six per cent interest for a year in advance. To the banker's surprise, Ezra gave him a $5,000 government bond as security. Ezra renewed the loan each year. After three years the perplexed banker asked him just what the big idea was. "Well," replied Ezra. "It is a lot cheaper than renting a safe deposit box for $10 a year."

Getting Stronger
"I must be getting stronger."
"How can you tell?"
"Well, a few years ago I couldn't carry $5 worth of groceries and now it's easy."

"Save the Soil" Campaigns in Manitoba

A new and different farmer competition, known as a "Save the Soil" campaign was started in Manitoba in 1951. The object of the competition is to encourage farmers to adopt soil management methods which will prevent wind and water erosion and maintain or improve the fertility of their soils. Two important farm practices are encouraged: (1) the use of trash cover and (2) the growing of grasses and legumes in rotations.

The Campaign. Twelve farmers in the Pilot Mound section of Manitoba entered the 1951 "Save the Soil" campaign. In the Spring, their farms were surveyed by soil and crop specialists, and suggestions made as to methods of soil improvement. At the end of the season, each farm was scored on the basis of the practices used by the farmer to control soil erosion and maintain fertility. Later, in November, an Achievement Day Banquet was held at which the results of the competition were discussed, and prizes awarded to those farmers who had made the best effort during the season. A silver cup, donated by this Department, comprised the major award.

Good Results. Each farmer participating in the campaign indicated that he had gained valuable information and experience from the 1951 "Save the Soil" competition. They all considered it a worthwhile effort, and each member agreed to persuade one or more of his neighbours to enter the campaign in 1952. Officials of the Manitoba Department of Agriculture associated with the Pilot Mound campaign, were impressed with its value in stimulating greater farmer interest in soil conservation methods. As a result, "Save the Soil" campaigns have now been officially approved by the Department as a provincial soil improvement project.

Farmers and others interested in soil conservation work in Western Canada will follow the results of the Manitoba campaign with interest. The Line Elevators Farm Service considers it a privilege to be associated with this important soil conservation program.

Motor Accident Toll In Alberta Alarming

Motor accidents in Alberta last year reached the alarming total of more than 11,800, according to a report received by the Alberta Motor Association.

There were 183 traffic deaths, of which 147 were at various points, outside the cities of Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat.

Officials of the AMA, which has been a leading advocate of highway safety measures for many years, are taking steps to study the traffic situation with a view to bringing about a substantial reduction in highway accidents.

While police report that their patrols have been increased, especially of points along the Calgary-Edmonton and other highways where speeding and reckless driving are prevalent, there is a strong feeling that other remedial steps are necessary to curb highway accidents.

Many of the fatalities were at level railway crossings. Others occurred when motorists collided with parked trucks while head-on car crashes also took their toll.

Volume of traffic in Alberta is showing a steady increase, which no doubt is another contributing factor. Nevertheless, there is a growing feeling in safety organization quarters that prompt action is necessary, not only along educational but also on enforcement lines, that will ensure greater driving safety in this province.

The provincial executive of the AMA will study reports of an early meeting.

My grandson, watching Grandpa sharpening his razor, noticed him pull a hair from his head to try out the blade and asked why he did that. Grandpa said, "That's how I tell if it's sharp enough, but I can't do it much longer or I'll have no hair left." To which our grandson replied, "Is that how you lost the rest of your hair?"

DR. BALLANTYNE WARNS AGAINST SPREADING HOOF MOUTH DISEASE

Any owner of cattle who may suspect foot and mouth disease in his herd should report to the authorities immediately. The report may be made to the nearest Health of Animals Division inspector, local veterinarian, Veterinary Services Branch of the Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, or to the nearest district agriculturist.

Under no circumstances should an owner call his neighbors over to see a suspected case, warns Dr. E. E. Ballantyne, Director of Veterinary Services. Nor should he bring in his car a head, tongue or other part of the suspected animal to the Provincial Veterinary Laboratory. All inspections must be made on the owner's farm.

If the symptoms warrant, material will be taken by a specially trained inspector to be forwarded to the Animal Diseases Research Laboratory, Hull, Quebec. No part of a suspected animal must be removed from the farm except under such authority. It must be remembered that foot and mouth disease will infect all animals in a herd and not just one or two, says Dr. Ballantyne.

Mothers Entertained At Buffet Supper

VILNA—On Wednesday, February 13, the C.G.I.T. "Torch Bearers and Vilna Voices" entertained their mothers at a Buffet Supper, which was held in the United Church Club-room.

The members had decorated the room and table with C.G.I.T. crests, candles, pictures and blue and white streamers, blue and white being the C.G.I.T. colors.

The supper of scalloped potatoes, holopchi, devilled eggs, cottage cheese, pickles, salad, jello and cake, was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. J. T. Bullock and Mrs. B. Boychuk, mothers of the two presidents, poured tea.

The evening programme contained many entertaining items. Mrs. Harold Mawson, a former C.G.I.T. leader, expressed her delight in being invited, and sang "Moonlight and Roses."

Camp songs were sung by Emelia Zaplitney, Emilia Feduck and Elizabeth Bullock. These three girls represented Vilna at camp last summer.

Two duets, including an Ukrainian selection, were sung by Margaret Timinsky and Verna Koshman.

A reading given by the leader, Miss I. E. Newton, was greatly enjoyed by all. "What is C.G.I.T.," written by Miss Newton, was read by Kate Koshman, Elizabeth Bullock and Emelia Zaplitney.

Other items for the evening were speeches, by the leader, Miss I. E. Newton, the two presidents, Miss Elizabeth Bullock and Miss June Boychuk, and by Mrs. W. Paley, who represented the mothers.

Everyone joined in the singing of favourite group songs.

The evening ended with everyone forming a circle and singing the closing C.G.I.T. song, "Taps."

HARRY LOBAY REPEATS PROPOSAL TO EXTEND BOUNDARIES NORTH

Suggesting a plan similar to one he offered last year in the Legislature, Harry Lobay, M.L.A. for Beaver River, has again suggested that Alberta's boundaries should extend "north to the Arctic circle."

LAC LA BICHE NEWS BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Don Stewart are now residing in the city, where Don is employed with Waterloo Motors.

Miss A. Coutney returned from Yellowknife last week after spending two and a half months visiting her sister, Mrs. Bill Feniak, and husband, also her brother, George. Miss Angeline went by plane, leaving Edmonton at 8 a.m., arriving in Fort McMurray at 9:15, Fort Smith at 10:30, Fort Resolution at 11:30, and at Yellowknife at 1 p.m. Each stop was twenty minutes to gas up. The plane returns the same day to Edmonton with same pilot. The plane carries twenty passengers. Miss Coutney one at the new, a large school, 42

Mr. Lobay stated that agricultural and industrial development is extending steadily northward, and said the resources of the North West Territories are needed by this province if its present financial stature is to be maintained.

All of Alberta would benefit, he believed, if the province's boundaries were pushed beyond the present limit along the 60th parallel. If the expansion were carried out, he said, the centre of the province would lie near Fort Vermilion.

The idea of bringing Alberta jurisdiction into the far north, Mr. Lobay stated, first was mentioned in the legislature by the late premier, William Aberhart.

The Beaver River M.L.A. referred to the north's rich resources, including zinc, copper, limestone, water power, timber, oil, gas and furs. He said development of these resources under the Alberta government is necessary to maintain the province's present prosperity.

Mr. Lobay called on the government to adopt a "more vigorous" highway construction program in northern Alberta. He suggested the provincial treasurer has money "hidden away" which could be used for road construction work in special areas.

Building of improved highway links in the northeastern sector, he believed would give "added incentive" to development of the Alberta Oil Sands.

is a large hospital with two doctors and nine nurses, two Hudson's Bay posts, one at the old town and one at the new, a large school, 42 taxi cabs, a hotel, rooming house, and a small Catholic Church. There are three mines, the Negus employs 250 men. Yellowknife is located 800 miles north-east of Edmonton, on Great Slave Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Steadman were in the city last week.

Mink Ranchers Worried About Fish

LAC LA BICHE—Local ranchers are wondering what will happen to the price of tullibees when the season opens again. It has been said that the fish may be bought for human consumption and shipped out. If this happens, the prices may rise enough to make it necessary for the mink ranchers to have fish brought in from the west coast. Horsemeat, which some ranchers have been using, will probably be in great demand if that happens.
